Who we are

The Friends of Nahant Marsh (FNM) is a group of devoted and loyal volunteers who support the mission of Nahant Marsh through continued volunteer service.

Each member brings a different skill set and knowledge to the group, creating a passionate and diverse group of individuals. Together we make a powerful team to support Nahant Marsh!

What we do

- Educate public about the services and history of Nahant Marsh
- Fundraise for scholarships and busing for student field trips
- Supply bird seed during the winter
- Docent the education center on Saturday mornings 9am-Noon
- Construction & carpentry projects
- Host booths at community events
- Provide meals for visiting AmeriCorps crews and bake sales during special events
- Provide ongoing volunteer service
- ...And more!

How to join

- Attend the monthly meeting held the last Wednesday of each month from 6-7pm at Nahant Marsh
- Pay dues to help support the FNM mission. $15 dues are paid each year at the January meeting
- Participate in FNM activities! There are no attendance or volunteer hour requirements— just help where you can!
